Dear Mr. Holmgren:

The State Engineer's office, Northern Region, has searched the water right records for the signatures on a letter you sent concerning the Malad River. The only water right found was for Bear River Club Company with a diversion point at what is known as Elwood Dam.

If you and others have claim to stockwatering, you should file a diligence claim with John Jensen, the Water Rights Specialist, in the Northern Regional Office. An engineer would be available to make a field review of the situation, if you would like to arrange an appointment.

Sincerely,

Robert M. Fotheringham, P.E.
Northern Regional Engineer
